Weekend entertainments

AS we continue to observe a second lockdown, here are some great options to entertain all music lovers from the comfort of their own homes.

JAZZ FESTIVAL

The EFG London Jazz Festival aspires to be as culturally diverse as possible, and there's something on the programme for everyone. Tune in tonight at 8.30pm, and get that Friday feeling with the uplifting Zantogola, a London-based musical collective. Armenian jazz pianist Tigran Hamasyan will be playing an exclusive set on Saturday evening, while on Sunday you can listen in to Georgia Cecile, one of the nominees for Jazz FM Vocalist of the Year 2020.

There are free and ticketed events you can book in advance. For more information, visit efglondonjazzfestival.org.uk

CLASSICAL MUSIC

At 8pm on Saturday, Southbank Centre is putting on a free online broadcast of the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra playing Beethoven's fourth piano concerto. Nicolas Namoradze plays piano while the brilliant soprano Sophie Bevan sings. For more details, visit www.southbankcentre.co.uk

All that jazz: Enjoy the EFG London Jazz Festival and the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra's performances this weekend

Staying safe when travelling

THE Government is asking everyone to help control the spread of coronavirus by trying to reduce journeys during this period of national restrictions. If you need to travel, for example to work, for education or other essential services, then you can do so, but you should walk or cycle where possible.

Measures are in place across the network to keep everyone safe. Carry hand sanitiser with you and wash your hands before and after you travel. Face coverings must be worn over your mouth and nose on public transport for the entire journey, unless you are exempt. If you do not wear a face covering, you could be refused travel or face a £200 fine, which doubles with every violation up to £6,400.

TfL has installed UV light devices to continuously clean more than 100 escalators on the Tube network.

This is on top of an already extensive cleaning regime which includes using hospital-grade cleaning substances that kill viruses and bacteria on contact and provide ongoing disinfection.

Try to travel at the quiet times on public transport where possible, which are between 8.15am and 4pm and after 5.30pm on weekdays, and before midday and after 6pm on weekends.

Reduced night services

THIS weekend, there is no Night Tube or Night Overground service, and limited Night Bus services. This includes tonight's night services.

River services suspended

ALL London River Services have now been suspended until December 2. All TfL piers will also be closed until this date. However, the Woolwich Ferry services will continue to run. To check for alternative routes, visit tfl.gov.uk
