

Plan ahead for the weekend

FOR TRAVEL ADVICE TO HELP YOU MAKE THE MOST OF LONDON, VISIT TFL.GOV.UK

FOR A SMOOTH JOURNEY THIS WEEKEND, CHECK AHEAD TO SEE IF ANY OF THE FOLLOWING PLANNED IMPROVEMENT WORKS AFFECT YOU

Circle line

Part closure

All weekend: No service between Edgware Road and Aldgate, via Embankment. This is owing to line modernisation work and signal testing. Use alternative London Underground routes or local buses.

District line

Part closure

All weekend: No service between South Kensington/Edgware Road and Ealing Broadway/Richmond/Wimbledon, owing to line modernisation work and signal testing. There will also be no service between Earl's Court and Kensington Olympia.

During the day, Uxbridge branch Piccadilly line trains will call additionally at Ravenscourt Park, Stamford Brook, Turnham Green and Chiswick Park. Use London Overground services between Richmond and Gunnersbury for local bus route 391 connections. Replacement buses will also run.

London Overground

Part closure

HIGHBURY & ISLINGTON TO NEW CROSS/CLAPHAM JUNCTION/CRYSTAL PALACE/WEST CROYDON ROUTE

Sunday: No service between Surrey Quays and Clapham Junction, owing to Network Rail track and infrastructure work. Rail replacement buses will operate.

LIVERPOOL STREET TO ENFIELD TOWN/CHESHUNT (VIA SEVEN SISTERS)/CHINGFORD ROUTE

Sunday: No service between Hackney Down and Chingford, owing to Network Rail track and infrastructure work. Replacement buses will operate.

TfL Rail

Part closure

Sunday: There will be no service between Liverpool Street and Stratford, owing to Network Rail engineering works. Use Central line services instead.

No stopping at Goodmayes station

THERE will be no TfL Rail services from Goodmayes station from this Sunday until Sunday August 12, owing to Network Rail performing footbridge improvement work.

TfL is advising people to use bus 86 instead, which goes to both Chadwell Heath and Seven Kings. Customers can continue their journey on TfL Rail from these stations.

Discover more with the DLR

THE DLR Discovery tours launch this weekend, giving ticket holders the chance to take a guided tour on a non-stopping train between two of London's most iconic destinations - Tower Gateway and Cutty Sark.

A tour guide will entertain and inform guests as they wind their way past the towering skyline of London's financial hub and on to the Cutty Sark tea clipper, where the journey continues with a 30-minute walking tour around the historic heart of Greenwich.

Tours run every Saturday and Sunday until September 9, with special trains departing every hour, from 10am each day.

Tickets cost £8 for adults and £4 for children aged five-12. For more details, visit tfl.gov.uk/dlr-discovery

Splashing time: The world's largest triathlon heads to London Docklands JAMES BELLORINI

Getting out and about

THERE'S lots going on in London this weekend. See below for some of the hottest happenings and details of how to get there.

LONDON TRIATHALON

The world's top triathletes will be swimming, cycling and running their way through the capital this weekend for the AJ Bell London Triathlon. This is the world's largest triathlon, boasting more than 13,000 participants and 30,000 spectators.

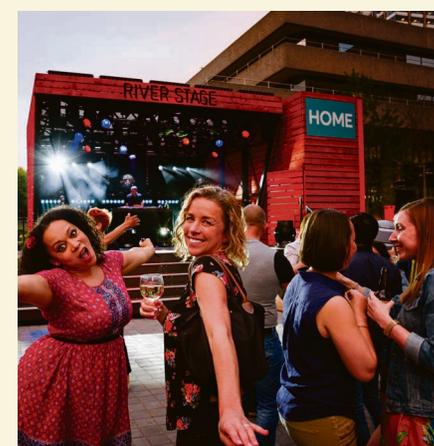

There are a number of courses around the ExCeL Centre and Docklands to suit all levels, from absolute beginners to the elite, so head to east London and be inspired.

Getting there: The nearest stations are Prince Regent (DLR) or Canning Town (Jubilee line). The Emirates Air Line cable car also runs across the river from Emirates Greenwich Peninsula.

RIVER STAGE

The party continues on the South Bank this weekend with East London group nonclassical taking over the National Theatre's River Stage. Expect a mix of sounds, from electronic to new classical, as well as mind-bending DJ sets and workshops for the whole family. There will also be pop-up bars and street food.

Getting there: The nearest station is Waterloo (Bakerloo, Waterloo & City, Jubilee and Northern lines), and there are plenty of buses and Santander Cycles docking stations nearby.

Alfresco beats: Enjoy some live music at River Stage on the South Bank RB CREATE 2017

LONDON WING FEST

Chicken lovers will be getting into a flap at Queen Elizabeth Olympic park this weekend for the fourth annual Wing Fest. More than 100,000 wings will be served from more than 35 restaurants and street food traders.

There will also be music, fairground rides and chainsaw wood carvings - which is something even the chickens would be crossing the road for.

Getting there: The nearest Tube station is Stratford (Central and Jubilee lines, DLR, TfL Rail and London Overground). There will be stewards to direct visitors to the event.
