

Top of the class

As schools open their doors again after the summer break, London Transport Museum has released a range of schoolbag essentials.

FROM pencil cases to lunch boxes, this transport-themed range will help pupils to study in style:

Andy Spencer London notebooks £9.99

Looking for a stylish and practical notebook that will make anyone stand out from their classmates? This set of three, from London-based artist Andy Spencer, is designed exclusively for London Transport Museum. The pocket-sized A6 notebooks come packaged in a smart box and are ideal for gifts.

London Underground map lunch bag £9.99

Lunches will look as cool as they feel with this Underground-inspired lunch bag. It has a secure zip-around closure and insulated lining so food is kept as fresh as the design.

It's a lovely gift for Tube travellers, and at a price your wallet will like too.

Bicicletta pencil box £14.99

Give stationery a splash of colour and style with this pencil box from artist Danica Studio. Ideal for of storing all types of pens and pencils, it makes a great back-to-school present for cycling enthusiasts.

London Underground map magnetic notebook £2

This pocket-sized notebook, with the London Underground map design, features a magnetic flap to keep pages safe.

Colouring pencils £4.99

Unleash an artistic side with this set of 12 colouring pencils and sharpener packaged in a tin tube that is ideal for carrying in a school bag.

London Underground carry case set £14.99

This set of three carry cases feature the London Underground map design. Each one has a red interior and a blue outer shell that depicts the colours of the Tube. The three designs will make great lunchboxes or interesting storage cases.

■ For more details and to view the full range of products, visit ltmuseumshop.co.uk

Sign up online to see your contactless travel
history and spending

Search TfL contactless

Word on the tweet

THE latest session in the Tweet the Manager series will give Bakerloo line passengers the chance to put their questions to manager Lance Ramsay from 1pm today. To get involved with the @bakerlooline conversation, just type your question using #AskBakerloo.

Bus strike advice

BUS journeys on certain London routes were due to be disrupted today by striking Unite union members.

Some 28 day and night routes run by Tower Transit could be hit if the industrial action goes ahead.

Other bus companies across the capital won't be affected and will run a normal service.

Passengers affected by any action should use other transport services, walk or cycle where possible.

■ Check before travelling at tfl.gov.uk/buses and follow @TfLBusAlerts

For more articles and to keep up to date with TfL announcements, visit tfl.gov.uk/news

London travel advice: plan your journey now

tfl.gov.uk

24 hour travel information
0343 222 1234*

Sign up for email updates
tfl.gov.uk/emailupdates

tfl.gov.uk/socialmedia

London Travelwatch

London's transport watchdog call 020 3176 2999, or visit www.londontravelwatch.org.uk

*Service and network charges apply.
See tfl.gov.uk/terms for details.

Newspapers left on the Tube can jam doors and cause delays to your journey.
Take your newspaper with you or put it in a recycling bin.