What's going on

TAKE advantage of warmer weather, head outside and immerse yourself in one of these experiences this weekend.

TRAIL OF LIGHT

Enjoy some fresh air and art after sunset by following the new Illuminated River art trail.

This centres around the five most recently lit-up bridges added to Leo Villareal's artwork (Blackfriars Road, Waterloo, Golden Jubilee, Westminster and Lambeth), while drawing attention to 11 other lightworks and public art projects around them.

Contemporary art on the trail includes Idris Khan's 65,000 Photographs and Simon Conder's light installation, Bough One.

You can download a map of the South Bank giving the option of starting the art trail from either Lambeth or Blackfriars bridges, with an accompanying online guide of the trail. For more, visit www.illuminatedriver.london

LITTLE MISS

From today until September 10, the Museum of Brands in Lancaster Road is celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the much-loved Mr. Men and Little Miss characters with a discovery trail and children's make-and-take creative activities. Visitors will have the chance to see original sketches by Adam Hargreaves, the Royal Mint commemorative coin collection and limited-edition Mr. Men Little Miss Royal Mail postage stamps.

Tickets cost £9 for adults and £5 for children and allow unlimited daytime entry for a whole year to the museum. For more information, visit www.museumofbrands.com

Light entertainment: This weekend, see the lights or visit the Mr. Men Little Miss trail JAMES NEWTON, MR. MEN LITTLE MISS@2021 THOIP

Staying safe when travelling

WITH the latest lifting of lockdown restrictions, TfL is reminding customers they must continue to wear a face covering over their nose and mouth while travelling, unless they are exempt.

TfL's enforcement officers will continue to run targeted operations and may refuse entry to anyone not wearing a face covering, or ask them to leave the network. They will be supported by the Metropolitan Police Service and British Transport Police.

Customers should make journeys at quieter times to help spread demand across the day. These are between 8.15am and 4pm and after 5.30pm in the week, and before midday and after 6pm at weekends.

To plan your journey, and download the TfL Go travel app, visit tfl.gov.uk/travel-tools

Woolwich Ferry strike action

STRIKE action on the Woolwich Ferry is planned to take place every Monday and Friday in July. Passengers on foot should use the Woolwich Foot Tunnel or take the DLR between King George V and Woolwich Arsenal. Drivers should use alternative crossings at Dartford, Blackwall and Rotherhithe, subject to vehicle restrictions.
