3707 *Law Costs – Paris Com. urge taxation of Mess. Wilkinson and Co's Bill. Board willing to refer settlement to Paris Com.*

*Lost Shares – 743 to be purchased*

Read Minutes of Meeting of the Paris Committee urging the taxation of the Bill of Mess. Wilkinson and Co, and also the purchase of 743 shares to replace those lost by the Company (vide Minute No. 3638 of 21st November 1862) Resolved that in the opinion of the Board this it is very desirable to avoid a rupture with Messrs. Wilkinson and Co. especially after they have conducted the Arbitration to a successful issue, and as in the opinion of Mr Martelli there is but little hope of any sensible reduction equal to the cost thereof being affected by official taxation, as the charges appear generally to be within the legal scale allowed by the Courts - that the Board are quite as anxious as their Paris colleagues to effect any saving that can be wisely made - that the Board will be happy to refer Mess. Wilkinson and Co to the Paris Committee for settlement of their claim, if they will undertake the arrangement of the matter. Resolved that an order be given to Mr Lizielli [?] to purchase the shares in question at a price of not exceeding 1 ½.
