Lighting up London

ENJOY A TREE-MENDOUS TIME IN TRAFALGAR SQUARE

DON'T miss the annual Christmas tree-lighting ceremony in Trafalgar Square tomorrow evening.

The lights will be switched on at 6pm by the Norwegian Ambassador, the Lord Mayor of Westminster, and the Mayor of Oslo.

The 25-metre-high tree is a yearly gift to London from the people of Norway in thanks for Britain's support during World War II.

The historic tradition has taken place every year since 1947 and, for many, signals the countdown to Christmas.

There will also be carol singing by the Salvation Army and the St Martin-in-the-Fields Choir, and poetry by local children.

The free event is presented by Westminster Council and supported by the Mayor of London.

SEASONAL EVENTS

The Christmas tree lighting marks the first in a series of seasonal activities in the square this month, including a special blessing of the crib ceremony and carol singing.
